To whom it may concern,

Re: Cello Presentation and Training:

The following letter is in conjunction with the training that was done on the Cello, at our institution on the 26th March 2021.

I would hereby like to thank Londeka Luthuli & Chad Cochrane who both conducted the above training on site.

They were both proficient and skilled in regards to the information required by members of our team.

They also carried themselves in a professional and pleasant manner which made dealing with your establishment an absolute pleasure.

We look forward to future endeavours with your company.

Thank you
